The order must be signed and notarized by the magistrate before a warrant is issued. If the order is not signed and notarized by the magistrate, then it is ineffective to revoke the outstanding warrant. Both the Florida Constitution and the Florida Statutes require that a probable cause determination must be based upon sworn testimony. See Fla. Const. art. I, § 9, and Fla. Stat. § 901.01. Furthermore, under Florida law, the "sworn testimony of one witness" is sufficient to establish probable cause. See State v. Riley, 462 So.2d 673, 674 (Fla.Dist.Ct.App.1985); see also State v. Cowart, 527 So.2d 854, 855 (Fla.Dist.Ct.App.1988). However, the Florida Supreme Court has concluded that this statutory provision does not violate the Florida Constitution. See State v. Koonce, 669 So.2d 980, 982 (Fla.1996) 4 This case is distinguishable from the Ninth Circuit case of United States v. Johnson, which held that a warrant to search a property is not related to an arrest warrant for a person. See 628 F.2d at 1313. Here, the two warrants were for the same premises. Cf. United States v. Griffin, 827 F.2d 1108, 1110 (7th Cir.1987) 5 The warrant in this case is not as broad as the one in Chesternut, in which the court upheld a warrant that authorized the search of "a motel room, its curtilage, and any vehicles parked in the immediate area of the motel room." 486 U.S. at 575, 108 S.Ct. at 1980 Friedrich Freytag Johann Friedrich Freytag (8 October 1801 – 9 November 1884) was a German chemist who studied
