The American republic was born in a culture where fickle reputation mattered more than long-term results. As the American saying goes, "Men are always judged by what they do today, but in the America of today, we judge things by what is done years later." We aim to change that. Fickle reputation needs to die, and we believe that once it's dead, the future holds no limitations. A modern American Republic needs to have a reputation as the world's greatest libertarian nation. We have begun work on a new project, but here's a sneak peek. Sneak Peak: Liberty Bell Friday, Sept. 17 - Thursday, Sept. 23 Learn more about Fickle Reputation and help us make the world a better place in our new project, the new radio show Liberty Bell. Q: stored procedure parameters with no default I have been writing in SQL Server but now need to code an application in Java. Is there a way to use a stored procedure with no default such as : parameters: @var1, @var2, @var3, @var4, @var5, @var6, @var7, @var8 SELECT * FROM table WHERE a=@var1 AND b=@var2 AND c=@var3 AND var4=@var5 AND var6=@var6 AND var7=@var7 AND var8=@var8 A: In java you can write something like this: CallableStatement callStmt = oracleConnection.prepareCall(sql_command); callStmt.setString(1, String.valueOf(var1)); // replace String.valueOf(var1) with your var1 declaration callStmt.setString(2,String.valueOf(var2)); //replace String.valueOf(var2) with your var2 declaration callStmt.setString(3, "SELECT * FROM my_table WHERE a=?"); // execute the set of statements oracleConnection.setStatement(callStmt); // call the getResultSet() method on the callableStatement to get the result

King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz is dead at age 90 after suffering a stroke on Sunday. His death was announced by the Saudi Press Agency. A statement from the Saudi Press Agency said the king "passed away after facing up against the sufferings that result in part from the effects of kidney disease and being struck by a stroke that required surgical treatment to relieve pressure in the brain." Facing up to his last hours, the king presided over a meeting with the Cabinet and was in good spirits. "King Abdullah is surrounded by many good things. His sense of humor is outstanding and his leanings are for the people," said a statement from a senior royal. The news was announced at King Abdullah's palaces in Jeddah and Mecca. King Abdullah is survived by both of his wives, no children, and 18 full brothers and sisters. He was also godfather to the
