Photoshop's name is very similar to Photoshop CS, which is a program that is freely available for Windows users. TIP Photoshop's tool palettes are very similar to those found on a computer mouse. These tool palettes permit you to use many of Photoshop's tools and apply various effects to an image simply by clicking and dragging. It's clear that Photoshop lacks the power and flexibility of an image editor designed to work with photographic data like Digital Darkroom. However, it's also clear that Photoshop is a powerful tool for producing images in all types of media. Learning how to use it will help you improve your skills as an artist. In addition, the fact that it's so easy to learn and use makes Photoshop perfect for beginning photographers who need to utilize tools that are common to graphic artists. Several programs exist to simplify the creation of images using the Basic features and utilities of Photoshop. These tools are called image-editing applications (IAPs). They include: * Photoshop Elements * Lightroom * Irfanview * Paint.NET Photoshop Elements, Lightroom, and Paint.NET are all freeware programs. Irfanview is a shareware program priced at $25. Q: how to display the calendar widget where the hours are in 24h format not the UTC time? I'm using the 24h time widget to display time in the client and it's working with Time Zone UTC+2 format, but when i change the Time Zone in clock widget to another time zone i notice that the hours are changed to UTC. I want that the hours be in 24h format in 24h timezone not in UTC. I set Time Zone in this way: timezone: "Europe/Bucharest" Thank's a lot A: it's working with Time Zone UTC+2 format It should be "Europe/Bucharest", the 24 hour time format is typically based on the local time zone, not the UTC time zone. Been a while since I used 24hourWidget, it will still work fine. Q: Classification of Lagrangian of Spinless Particle Do any of the following theories provide a Lagrangian for the motion of a spinless particle? In all of these, the spin of the particle is not considered, but I'm not sure how they reconcile with the fact that the spin of a spinless particle is 1/2. A: You are correct that there is no single natural Lagrangian describing a particle of spin  $s=0$ . In all cases described you can always make a transformation such that the spin has no coupling to the external world. These transformations are usually referred to as "rotations" in a  $2s+1$  dimensional Hilbert space. In the case of the free particle it is actually quite easy to write down a non-trivial Lagrangian:
 with  $\phi$  being a Lagrange multiplier for fixing the position of the particle in the  $x$ -direction. I'm assuming that you didn't make a mistake with the  $v^2$  term. If the particle is free, then  $p = m \dot{\phi}$ . If the particle is instead bound to a spring the above is just the standard Lagrangian of a bound particle, with the two extra terms coming from the energy of the spring. It's also possible to write down a

Q: How to Retrieve Latest Public Accessing Role of User in Liferay? In Liferay 5.2 I created a Role named PrintEditor. I added two users who belong to this role. I changed the permission of the two users. Now I want to retrieve the latest who has granted the permission to access the user who doesn't have the permission. I am trying to retrieve the latest the user who has given access to that user, by using following code, but I am getting null value. Long previousID = null; UserPrintPlugin portlet = (UserPrintPlugin) pageContext.getAttribute( "portlet" ); User oldUser = portlet.getUser( userId ); Long latestUserAccess = null; Set updatedPermissions = oldUser.getGroupPermissions(); for (Permission permission : updatedPermissions) { if ( permission.isGranted() ) { latestUserAccess = permission.getGroupID(); break; } } Integer diffId = userID.intValue() - previousID.intValue(); User newUser = portlet.getUser(userId); Long latestAccess = newUser.getGroupID(); if ( diffId > 0 || latestUserAccess != null ) { latestUserAccess = latestUserAccess + 1; } portlet.setUser(userId, "Granted: " + latestAccess); pageContext.setAttribute( "userInfo", newUser ); pageContext.setAttribute( "permissionAccessStatus", permission ); My problem is that, I am not sure whether the two user grant permission to each other or not. If both the users are already granted permission then the code for creating latestUserAccess is working fine, but if the users are not granted permission then latestUserAccess is always null. Can anyone please help me to resolve this issue. A: Finally the issue was resolved by using below code, First I get latestGrantedIDUser(), then it's I compare with previousID and if I found a difference I increment the latestGrantedIDUser() +1. Now, it's I get all the permission that are granted to that user from the group and check if it's a permission
