Dude Simulator 4 is a first-person open-world sandbox game with a plot. Dude Simulator 4 supports cross-platform play on Xbox One, Playstation 4 and PC. The new story will take place after the events of Dude Simulator 3. Dude wakes up from a night of partying and is locked in his friend's apartment. With its unlocked weapons and numerous places to explore, the Dude never knew that he could do so much. The game allows access to the entire world without any boundaries or restrictions – Dude can go anywhere at any time. Dude can explore any point of interest, use all of his weapons, buy things, play mini-games and go for a ride. Dude cannot only jump, walk around, run, climb stairs, do handstands, do somersaults, but also throw his fist, punch walls, shoot explosives, hang from a branch,... and so on. The goal of the game is to survive in this crazy world. Dude is a man without a future, so he is free to do whatever he wants and live the way he wants. Along with the main plot, Dude Simulator 4 also features side-quests, sandbox mini-games, quests and dialogue choices. Features: Story mode: the player will follow the story of the game. There will be a number of quests, side-quests, and mini-games. Survival mode: Dude can go anywhere and do anything at any time. Dude will have to figure out how to live and survive in this crazy world. Convenience mode: Dude is always equipped with many weapons. He also has an armored car, a plane, a helicopter, and motorcycles. Open world: the player can go anywhere and do whatever he wants. Crazy events: the player will get into various situations, where he has to make choices that will affect the story. Juggler: you can jump, swing, punch, and throw objects. Explosives: you can shoot various explosive items. Weapon upgrades: improve your various guns and throwers. Camouflage: change the color of your clothing. Fast travel: easily get back to any city or point in the game. Side quests: read comments, listen to dialogues, visit places, etc. Sandbox: choose the way of life, explore various points of interest, do side quests, mini-games, and other stuff. Support for Xbox One, Playstation 4 and PC.

What's new in Dude Simulator 4:

- VPS(Voting Platform) Info The crack to this game is a full album and its a big one! We have this game fully adapted to 3 screen capable of working when you use it to play at home or on your laptop. In the latest chap we have further optimization to the game put into place and high performance graphics! In the graph we have a bunch of demos to tell you about the love shown and the stuff we have added to the game. You can read about in the show notes at the bottom of the page. We have the latest part of our live stream next week at 12 am CET Sunday 20th December, so we will be streaming this game live so make sure you follow us on Twitch and check back in Monday to watch that and a few other songs on a USB recording device. STUFF THAT HAS CHANGED If you follow the development at our github you will know we are working on a VPS voting platform for next year, for you to play the game and be part of the voting process as well! But we can't share more on that just yet ;) for now here's what has changed : added custom characters that can be created and the choices they go in, along with 100 choices in total. a quick cast time of 14 ticks for casting spells. improvements Added 100 custom characters all with different choices, they have a character class as well to decide their race type as well as their attrib Updated the frost spell Made the spell cast by rolling a d10 and adding the appropriate modifier to give you +1 (+2 for a brutal awakening spell) to cool down quicker for a 10 second spell. optimizations Optimized 3d models, textures and shaders. Replaced with "real engine" physics. Slowed down the game and removed the editor that was left in. We just have a front end running the game now. No more pre-rendered backgrounds and character models. graphics We have moved from a standard background to a custom built Unity scene, allowing us to give a custom, immersive and vibrant gameplay experience! No more boring static backgrounds! cracking Many people have been requesting that we create a new crack of this game. We have built a 3 screen configuration of the game so that it can be played on laptop screens as well! When you are logged
